

International Journal of Business and Social Science Research

Vol: 1, Issue: 2

October/2020

<https://ijbssrnet.com/index.php/ijbssr>

DOI: 10.47742/ijbssr.v1n2p4

©The Institute of Academic Research and Publication

<http://iaronet.org/>

REMEDIES FOR THE CRISIS AND CORONAVIRUS-INDUCED INSOLVENCY: WHAT LEGAL "WEAPONS" ARE AVAILABLE TO FIGHT THIS "WAR"?

Maria Margherita Lazzara

Researcher of Economics Law
Department of Economy and Business
Catania University
Email: mlazzara@lex.unict.it
Italy

ARTICLE INFO

*Article history: Article
Received
Revised
Accepted: 16 October, 2020
DOI: 10.47742/ijbssr.v1n2p4*

ABSTRACT

This paper aims to define certain rules that may accompany insolvent enterprises and over-indebted households in post-pandemic recovery. At this time, the crucial need to provide entrepreneurs, creditors, debtors, and consumers with certainties cannot be delayed. In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, various countries are